Legal Scholars Meetings-Spring Semester 2017

All meetings begin at 6:00 p.m. in MHC 1205 and end around 7:30 p.m. Dinner is provided, so it is essential that you advise Professor Dryer at least a day in advance of the meeting if you will not be attending. The first 10-15 minutes of each meeting are devoted to a discussion of current judicial decisions or other legal developments. Please come to the meeting with any recent events you would like to discuss. The balance of the meeting is focused on a particular substantive legal topic and often involves a guest presenter. When a guest speaker is present, a student will be assigned to introduce the speaker. The schedule, discussion facilitator and topics are outlined below:

February 9, 2017: “Terrorism After 9-11: Homegrown and Foreign” Guest presentation by Amos Guiora, Professor of Law, S.J. Quinney College of Law.

Thursday, April 13, 2017: “Why Crime Victims Deserve Enforceable Rights in the Criminal Justice Process” Guest presentation by Paul Cassell, Professor of Law, S.J. Quinney College of Law and former federal District Court Judge for the District of Utah.
